Jon Magnusson's new EP "Always a Rebel" to be released 9th of March

Stockholm, Sweden, 5 February 2018

Independent music apostle and community builder Jon Magnusson is back with a new EP. Being somewhat crazy, the Swedish singer songwriter was able to find an equally crazy producer in Ruben Engzell (Christian Kjellvander, Peter Morén) to co-produce his second EP.

The result is an eclectic patchwork of four songs brought together by their differences, as much as their similarities. This artistic exploration that's usually reserved for a debut album, blends acoustic, electric and jazz guitar with classical analog synths like Roland Juno 60 and Yamaha CS-10, Hammond Organ and even a distorted glockenspiel. Jon & Ruben envisioned a weaving narrative of thoughtful lyrics and melodies laying blissfully on top of fresh soundscapes, which has become emblematic for Jon's music. Though difficult to put a label on, calling it indie folk isn't toally out of bounds. You can also hear elements of 70's punk, new wave, jazz, psychedelic rock and even some Americana braided throughout the music, making this EP a bold step forward in Jon's artistic pursuits.
